SAMPLE SCRIPTS FOR CONTACT

Using a script can be a sticky wicket: they create ease into a conversation when starting out, but scripts ARE NOT MEANT TO BE READ WORD FOR WORD. These scripts are guidelines! Make it your own because potential partners are not joining the company, they are joining YOU so BE YOU!

NOTE: Your conviction and excitement will NOT be communicated via text... these scripts are to be spoken in your own words with a call or a voice text.

PRESENTATION INVITE:

Hi _____, Wanted to give you a quick courtesy call to share with you. I'm helping to lead the National expansion of a brand-new company. This company is positioned to be the next billion-dollar giant. All the details will be shared tonight on a zoom at 8:00pm CST. Are you able to jump on for 30 min? Great! I'll text you the zoom details. Gotta run, I'll talk with you again tonight after the zoom.

THREE WAY CALL INVITE:

I know you're busy building your company, but I was compelled to call you. This is a courtesy call. There's a company launching that's revolutionizing proactive wellness. The products are of the highest quality. Even more importantly the amount of money available for people like you, with reach, is crazy! This alternative income stream will compete with whatever you're currently making in 2 years. Would it be worth a conversation with people who are leading the charge?

PLANTING THE SEED OF A DREAM:

What are you doing right now in your life that's so great that you can't take a chance on your future chasing your dreams to do a business like this? What if it works?

RESPONSE WHEN 'GHOSTED':

(TEXT) Circling back to you... nothing but crickets LOL
